

Do you know about Thrive Upstate's THRIVE ALIVE 250 STRONG? These individuals live in Thrive supported homes. They are a self-advocacy group with a collective voice for community action and integration.

They vote for office positions and carry out tasks associated with their elected positions. Most recently, Thrive Alive 250 Strong voted to host a non-perishable food drive for a local food bank. They love the rewards of giving back to the community!

Thrive supports these 250 individuals by providing them with a home and encouraging them to grow their interests to enjoy more variety in life that you and I take for granted.

Derek, shown here is partaking in an ice cream social with others advocates.
